

Do you have what it takes? Compete in the 6th Annual Deloitte UW Case Challenge!

Welcome to the 6th Annual Deloitte Case Challenge at the University of Washington. Prepare to challenge yourself to solve complex, real-world problems that many businesses struggle with every day.

During the week-long Case Challenge, you will work with your team and compete against fellow UW students to develop the most comprehensive solution to the client's problem. In order to succeed, you will need to utilize your business acumen and understanding of technology to deliver a final recommendation.

Today's marketplace requires consultants to not only have a broad based understanding of a company's business climate but also technical competency to develop solutions that are strategic, insightful and actionable. This is your chance to experience life as a Deloitte consultant and take your game to the next level. Are you ready for the challenge?
