From the editor's desk

We're about halfway through the quarter and as always, you have midterms and projects due. If you're feeling stressed out or tired, remind yourself that you've made it this far and you're fully capable of pushing on. You also have a variety of resources to help you including undergraduate social events, meditation, and counseling. Reach out to others if you need help!

The Allen School is a big community and we're always here to help.
